

PRODUCT UPDATE

WEST MARINE is expected to begin stocking its new ISAF safety tethers with lightweight aluminum Kong snaps by the end of this month. The tether rated well in our January 2007 tether comparison, but distribution was halted due to manufacturing issues. Practical Sailor will be testing the new tether as soon as it becomes available.