

A CLOSER LOOK

1. The Nike Dri-Fit earned big points for its Velcro back closure, which can be adjusted with one hand while it's on the wearer's head. 2. The Adams Cool Crown cap's leather-and-brass closure requires two hands to adjust and has a tendency to pull longer hair. 3. The Musto hat has a similar adjustment system, but it has the added convenience of a lanyard that attaches to a shirt or collar to keep the hat onboard in big blows.
