

HITS AND MISSES

HIT: V-berth has great ventilation.

MISS: Two tall people will find foot room to be limited.

HIT: Molded, deep sink fit for sea duty.

MISS: Stainless sinks handle rigors of cleaning and cooking better.

MISS: Fixed ports limit ventilation

HIT: Ergonomic galley design

HIT: Easy to clean heads

MISS: Varnished floor can be slick

MISS: Cushion seams catch dirt

HIT: Folding table provides elbow room for crew meals

HIT: Aimed principally at racers, the C&C 115 affords a pleasant retreat for nights at the dock or short cruises.

MISS: Overall, sleeping arrangements are fairly tight, and only the forepeak gets exceptional ventilation.
